

NORTH COAST SPATIAL INFORMATION GROUP

Seminar Agenda

Hosted by NSW Department of Land and Water Conservation
Level 3 Conference Room, 76 Victoria Street, Grafton.

Wednesday 15 May 2002

- 10:00 am Morning tea [kindly provided by MapInfo]
- 10:35 am Seminar opening
Ken McDonald, NSW Dept. of Mineral Resources, Armidale
- 10:40 am LPI News
Stuart Ellis, LPI, Bathurst
- 10:55 am North Coast Community Mapping and other projects – Airborne Scanning
Robert Cook & Robert Norman, Air Target Services
- 11:40 am OpenGIS application at Mid Coast Water
Ian Edwards, Open Spatial Technologies
- 12:10 pm Introductions
Brief introduction by any new members and their interests in spatial data applications
- 12:20 pm LUNCH [kindly provided by MapInfo]
- 1:20 pm Key Habitats and Corridors
Mark Cameron, National Parks and Wildlife Service
- 1:50 pm Community Access to Natural Resources Information - State Wide Data via the Internet
Ross Johnson, NSW Department of Land and Water Conservation
- 2:20 pm Open Forum, including:
 - Brief overview of any projects being undertaken by members' organisations
 - Any problems/difficulties being experienced by members in setting up or utilising a systemItems for Discussion
 - Suggestions for topics/demonstrations at our next seminar
 - Venue and date for next seminar
- 2:40 pm Inspection of Grafton City Council GIS
Site visit for those interested in seeing a newly installed Council GIS
Shane Tinnock, Grafton City Council
- 3:10 pm Close